CHICAGO, September 26.—There was a strong feeling in the wheat market during the greater portion of the session to-day, based on higher cables and the warlike tenor of the news from the Balkan country. Prices were advanced at one time tenor of the news from the Balkan country. Prices were advanced at one time over the closing figures yesterday afternoon, carrying November up to SEc, after which a reaction of lie set in and the latest trading was at a figure ic under the close of yesterday. The receipts at Northwestern points were more liberal, and it was stated that another increase of 500,000 bushels in the visible supply would be disclosed next week. These conditions, and possibly some free realizing, caused the market to drop off to inside figures.
